By FRANK P. MACLENNAN.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

DAILY. TO AN PA T OF TOPERA O'S BURBS, R AT THE SAME PRICE IN ANY RANSAS TOWN

Address, STATE JOURNAL.

Report.
Let The STATE JOURNAL has a regular average Daily Loca Circulation in Topeza of move than all other Capital City Dailies Combined, and Donbio that of its principal competitor—a very creditable morning news-Member of the American Newspaper Fundamers' Association.

The Stars Jounnal Press Room is spulped with a Lighting Web Perfecting Tracing Press—the hundsonest and fastest piece of printing machiners in the state.

Weather Indications. Washington, Aug. 10 .- Forecast until 8 p. m., Saturday: For Kansas-Fair, southerly winds.

THE ballot boxes in Alabama appear to be quite the stuff.

In recognizing Hawaii before congress Instructed him to, Mr. Cleveland scored man who was ever president. Still he the right of the women to vote. wasn't long in office.

THE congressmen who have been announcing an agreement in sight, must have eyes like engles.

REV. J. D. BOTHIN is flading out how hard it is to have Populist leanings and be an orthodox Methodist.

Hasn't the state administration some fund it can use to save us from the Russinn thistle as well as the cholera?

ABILEVE Reflector: Topeka teachers have had their salaries cut down 10 per cent. Abilene does not save money that way. It is poor economy.

the sugar trust never wavers.

the United States shake hands.

THE last remaining members of Coxey's army have wound up in the house of correction. If Coxey himself is successful he will land in the house of corruption.

Ir has been suggested that the governor order out the militia to protect the state from the invasion of the Russian years, a republic the president's friends say he never had any other intention. What does Queen Lil think of that?

Ir cannot be denied that the determination of Senator Martin or anyone else to stand by the Democrats at a time like the present shows a great deal of cour-

THE Allen bill to prevent professional lobbying, was referred to the committee on labor. Senators it appears didn't lose their sense of humor along with their Mr. and Mrs. Rob . J. faggart Will Ride

On account of the decline of foreign exchange gold exports will soon cease. If they stop before the gold is gone this will be another disappolatment for Mr.

Nor the least of the pleasing features of the final settlement of the Hawaiian further eruptions on the part of Mr. Boutelle.

THE announcement that Senator Martin will work for the Democratic ticket will please no one more than Mrs. Lease. She can now say, "I told you so," with peculiar emphasis.

Ir is uncommonly kind of Mr. Thomas B. Reed to keep silent about the Democratic party just now. But perhaps he thinks he couldn't add to the ludierousness of the situation.

The bicycle relay riders are uniformly reported ahead of time by several hours. The time is probably taken when their heads cross the line, the rest of their the caute can not live in the pastures badies come slow later. "I think," continued Mr. Lyttle, "that bodies come slong later.

AMID much discord and several knock downs Gen. Weaver was nominated for congress by the Democrats of the Ninth Iowa district. This is only the prelimluary to the knocking out of Weaver in Nuvember.

THE Americans in England are sick and tired of seeing George Gould's yaout Vigilant beaten s I the time. It apparently wouldn't have injured Mr. Gould's popularity if he had remained in the sea that time he fell in.

THE missionary workers who want to send 1,000 barrels of flour to Corea had better save them till next winter and use them at home. It is quite unnecessary to go to the other side of the world for distress in Democratic times.

T. C. HENRY'S WOFUL TALE.

A Deuver dispatch to the Chicago Inter-Ocean quotes T. C. Hanry, formerly the "Wheat King" of Kansas, but now of Colorado, as saying that middle and western Kansas is utterly rumed. He said he had just returned from a tour of the state and that four-tifths of the population had already abandoned their homes; that farmers used to borrow money to BELIVERED BY CAUNIER. ... 10 CENTS A WEEK | tide over calamity years, but now no loan company would place a dollar on a Kau-WHERE THIS PAPER HAS A CARRIER SYSTEM. Sas farm. If all of Mr. Henry's state-BY MAIL, THERE MONTHS...... $.00 | ments are us far from the truth as the worthy of belief. There is not the least difficulty in borrowing eastern money on Kansas farms. The loan agencies in The first paper in Kansas to security the leased wire service of the Associated Day Service of this great organization for the concention of news. A telegram operator in the Starz Journal one of taking this report, which comes continuously from 7:10 a. In the 4:00 p. in. (with building of the propose of taking this report, which comes continuously from 7:10 a. In the 4:00 p. in. (with building of the propose of taking this report, which comes continuously from 7:10 a. In the 4:00 p. in. (with building of the propose of taking this report, which down the farm in this part of the state can borrow a wire running mite this of the sol only for the day Associated Press business busine this city are ready and anxious to place Henry that he should tell such things about her.

WENDELL PHILLIPS: "I am one who believes that women will bless and brighten every place they enter, and will enter every place. I believe that we are gotting ready for greater victories and more accomplishments than we have ever dreamed of. Woman's mission is not only in the home, but to make the whole world homelike. Protection for the home will become the watchword for the twentieth century."

SENATOR INGALLS' only argument, so far, against woman suffrage is that his wife and daughter do not want to vote: it is a matter of no comeen to the wom in of the state whether Mrs. Ingalis or Miss Ingalls wants to vote or not. That is HARRISON it is said was the shortest their affer. It has nothing to do with

> THE religious bodies of Northfield, Minn., have been praying for rain constantly since July 15, and are going to quit if rain doesn't come by Sunday. It doesn't seem to make any difference whether you bombard the heavens with prayer or powder it won't rain unless it is rain weather.

THE LICENSE CASE.

Dismissed in Pol es C net This Marning Bu: Will be Tried Again- in Asomit, The police court was a kindergarten sgain this morning. George Auntweider lives with his mamma in North Topeka, next door to THE tariff conferrees have a great deal Charley Swenson and his manna. Charley goes to Sunday school. George does not look as though he d.d. shall come in free, but their filelity to Yesterday was a warm one and as the sugar trust payer warm one and as George couldn't find anything else to amuse himself with ne playfully threw a rock over into Charley's yard, and as The president of Peru has issued a Charley happened to be there it struck charley happened to be there it struck him on the back. The rock was in president of Peru has issued as president of Peru and the president of Lee court this morning and Locad as 1-62 though it belonged to the found mon of the court house. Charley's ma ning d.dn't like that sort of treatment of her boy, so she had George arrested. The case was tried this moraing, and each side told a d figrent story, of course. George's head wasn't sli iped right, however, and the in lye didn't like his story, so he gave The continued case of Mr. - Stewart Since Hawaii had to be recognized as read), who had been arrested at the request of Leonie Collector Vanderposi for pedding gasoline without a ct y permit, was next called. Mr. Sexart was represented by W. A. S. B.r . The case was speedly disposed of. seems that in making out the warrant the city attorney and suppel some blank places and on this omission the case was dismissed. Mr. Vanderpool immediately swore out another warrant for the arrest of Mr. Stewart and the case will come up in police court again tomorrow.

A LONG BUGGY RIDE.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Taggart of

Pittsburg, Pa., left Topeka today for the east in a buggy. Mr. and Mrs. Taggart have spent the greater part of the summer in hight-secing, having just returned from Cali-fornia. At Topeka they concluded to continue their journey eastward in a more leisurely manner, and they will travel by short stages until they reach question will be decreased probability of St. Lonis where they expect to abandon their vehicle and make the rest of their trip by rail.

They carry little baggage and will take supper tonight at Lawrence. After spending some time in this historic Kansas town they will leave for Kausas City where they will remain long enough to see the sights of that city; and they are not the sights which most Topeka people go there to see

PASTURES DRYING UP.

A Dover Township Farmer Says Cattle Must im bed soon.

"Unless we get rain this week," said W. M. Lyttle, who has a farm in Dover township, "we will have to commence feeding our stock. The prairies are drying up fas and it will not be long until -Munsey's Magazine. the corn in our township will not make over five bushels to the acre and there are many fields which will not have a oushel. The corn which was planted very early will make something and we may get rain soon enough to help out some pieces of very late corn, but the atlook is very gloomy to say the beat." Paste This over the Stove. The Newton Republican says: "If people would just remember that five would extinguish blazing gasoline the knowledge would be inestimable," sail a man of the house today. " undry the ank on our gasoline stove was blazing. Wet gloths were used without effect, when I remembered that I had read to flour would extinguish the blaze. A nandful did almost put it out, and another sauffed it completely.

Aver's Ague Cure never falls to cure fever and ague and malarial disorders. HIS WIFE'S VACATION.

There's an inch deep of dust on my table, An inch deep of dust on my chair. I wade round the best I am able

And repress my strong motive to swear.

The bed is plied up on the sideboard,
And the sofa is jammed through the door,
And a long and unusually wide board is righted from my daily wide board Is ripped from my drawing rocks floor.

The mop from my dictionary holder Flaunts wide, like a flag of distress, And asionishes every beholder With a feeling that's hard to repress.

The fintirons, firkin and tunnel
Are laid in my best parlor chair.
My stove is devoid of its funnel.
My temper is out of repair.

The dog has pre-empted my study.
The cats on my table repose.
And the rubbits, whose fur was quite middy.
All rest in my best Sanday cio'es.
The whitewash has pecied from the ceiling.
The paper has pecied by the roll.
And I lour, in my tumult of feeling.
I've imperiled my immortal soul.

I'm a poor married bachelor fellow,

And life that was once fair and sweet
And life that was once fair and sweet
And gracious and happy and mellow
Is a failure—a failure complete.
And there's nothing for me but vexation
And werry and trouble and doubt
Till my wife comes back home from vacation
And straightens the universe out.

World

-New York World.

Her Advice. The three girls who sat at the end of the car were chattering like magples. The tall one who were the blue shirt waist said just as the car turned into Elmwood avenue: Oh, girls, I had such a remarkable experience on Tuesday afternoon! I went and saw a cinirvoyant."

"Oh, my," said the other two in concert, 'what did she tell you?"

"Lots of things, and most of them were true too. She knew all about the family and told me of the time I nearly died with the diphtheria and a lot more things like that, and she said I was going to be "Well," broke in the girl with the sallor hat, ' you are, are you not? Everybody knows that."

"Of course," responded the girl with the blue shirt waist, but she said the man I would marry would be tall and fair, with carly golden hair and a blond beard. He is to be an Englishman who is in this country traveling for pleasure, and I ain to meet him at Long Branch."
"Pooh!" said the girl with the sailor hat. "That wasn't a very good guess. Why, Charlie is short and dark and has a black mustache and was born right here in Buffalo." "I know," replied the girl in the blue shirt waist, "but she was positive I would marry the man she described, and she told me so many things that were true that I don's know what to do." "Of course," said the girl with the sailor hat, "you are going to throw Charlie over and wait for this Englishman to come The girl in the blue shirt waist looked troubled. "No-o," she said slowly. don't just want to do that. I don't know what to do.' "I know what I'd do," broke in the third girl, who had been listening intently. What?" asked both the other girls. "Marry Charlie and trust to Inck in getting the other fellow when I was a wid-And the girl in the blue shirt waist looked immensely relieved .- Buffalo Ex-

-New York Herald. Association of Ideas. To remember one thing connect it with another. That is a very good rule in mnemonics, but it needs to be observed with caution. An exchange reports a schoolroom dialogue: Teacher-With whom did Achilles fight at the battle of Troy?

Pupil-Pluto. Teacher-Wrong. Try again.

Punil-Nero. Teacher-Nero! How do you-

Pupil-Then it must have been Hector. I knew it was one of our three degs .-Youth's Companion.

Country Board.

"Well," said Mr. Hollerstraw as be en-tered his rural abode, "I've made a right good dieker."

How?" asked his wife. 'I've found a city storekeeper thet wants ter send his fam'ly out hero ter live on the farm, an he pays in condensed milk an canned meat an things."-Washington Star.

An Exact Definition.

Lord Russell said, "Mr. Hume, what do you consider the object of legislation?" The greatest good to the greatest num-

What do you consider the greatest number?'

Painter-Then, sir, you wish me to compose some ancestral paintings for the country seat you have purchased. How many ancestors shall you require? Wealthy Stockholder-You can paint me eight to start with. If I like 'em, I'll order some more.-El Mundo Comico. A Matter of Opinion. Maid-Please, ma'am, I'd like to give you a week's notice.

Mistress—Why, Mary, this is a surprise!
Do you hope to better yourself?

Maid (blushing)—Well, not exactly that, I'm going to get married .-

Unavoidable Delay. Mrs. Hicks-I ordered 10 yards of dress goods here yesterday, to be sent. Has it been cut yet?

Floorwalker - No, Indeed. The clerk said you hadn't been in yes to change your mind.-New York World.

Remington Typewriter

makes no pretensions that are not supported by its record; advances no claims that the actual performance of each and every machine manufactured will not justify; varies not from one uniform standard of excellence in construction; and therefore maintains, by means of timely and thoroughly tested improvements, its unquestioned pre-eminence as the Standard Writing-machine Simple, Practical, Durable, Easy to Learn and Operate.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE.

WYCKOFF, SEAMANS & BENEDICT, 327 Broadway, New York.

J. F. MYERS. LOCAL DEALER.

STAGE GLINTS.

"La Duchesse d'Athenes" is the title A Lorg Hungry Gas With a Mystery of the new play Sardou is writing for Sarah Beruhardt

"The Girl I Left Behind Me" will be produced by Charles Frohman in London next Easter Monday.

Alfred Brunean's new four act opera, "L'Attaque de Moulin," has been received with great praise in London.

That excellent actor, Albert Bruning, is not certain whether he will play in John T. Sullivan, Rose Coghlan's husband and manager, is rapidly recovering from the effects of a recent surgical operation for appendicitis. The referee in the suit brought by Mantell from playing under any other managers finds in the actor's favor. Merri Osborn has received $2,000

When Beerbohm Tree comes to Amer- suspense was awful, When Beerhohm Tree comes to America, the London Haymarket theater will be taken by Lewis Waller for the production of a new play by Oscar Wilde.

Was this a shrick without a clue? Would it melt away into the summer without leaving a solution to its mystine Seal Skin Russet $7,000 and the summer without leaving a solution to its mystine Seal Skin Russet $7,000 and the summer without leaving a solution to its mystine Seal Skin Russet $7,000 and the summer without leaving a solution to its mystine Seal Skin Russet $7,000 and the summer without a clue? duction of a new play by Oscar Wilde. | tery?

Camille d'Arville will be under E. E. Rice's management the next two years, | just discovered it. His bony fluger point | blen's fine hand sewed Prince Al-She will probably appear in the forth-coming production of "Little Christo pher Columbus," Walter Browne, the English actor

Walter Erowne, the English actor crowd smiled, It was on. It granued. It summer wear $3 Shoes. 1.50 and singer, journalist and playwright, had been there itself. It laugued hourse- Men's fine Calf Wett , 2.50 Shoes, has turned his hand very successfully to novel writing, and his new story, '2894; or, The Fossil Man, " is having a wide sale.

THE FASHION PLATE.

Foulard silks are still very fashionable, and they deserve their popularity. Some of the handsome visiting dresses of the summer show very fine cream white tailor cloth used in conjunction with cloth of some pale tint.

Among very fashionable people, particularly those who affect English fancies in dress, tiny velvet bonnets and capotes are conspicuously popular.

There are worn this senson at fashionable watering places some exceedingly pretty sheer india lawns in openwork designs and of the soft tint of undyed Queen Victoria will keep Irish poplin a fashionable fabric for seasons to come, for some months ago she ordered a number of gowns of this fabric for the trousseau of Princess Alix of Hesse. The majority of this year's debutantes, of course, wear white, but pink in lovely tints is also greatly favored. The most becoming shade is that seen in the heart of the blush rose or the inside of

Black and white lace and chiffon in combination form recherche mantles, and cream white accordion plaited chiffon, with flounces of cream Venetian point above, compose the ideal cape of the summer. - New York Post.

CHICAGO PROVERES.

Think twice before you hit once. Cold sunshine makes the most shivers. Laughter's wrinkles mock those of Fashion counts more victims than pestilence. Much whitewashing is done with the fox's brush.

The sick do not have to exercise all the patience. The genuine thoroughbred makes his own pedigree. A standing army gives its supporters little time to sit.

Wealth is more frequently overestimated than worth. Youth hastens to pleasure, manhood to cure, old age to sleep. More than one aucestral tree has furnished timber for the gallows.

The belief in immortality undoubtedly acts as a brake on the down grade. The doctor is sometimes excusable for prescribing prevarication pills.-ChiTHE STORY OF A SHRIEK.

It was the shady side of the avenue. A crowd was gathering. A crowd is nothing unusual in Topeka. But there was something unusual about this crowd. It was looking upward. Its gaze hung upon a long spearlike shrick, the glitter-ing point of which extended from a sec-ond story window. It was a two-legged shr.ek, and as near as the crowd could judge it wore trowsers. there was much more interest in the shrick that ry, Boston, Mass., which will be sold as the. "legitimate" or comedy the coming way than there would have been had its quick as possible at 65c on the dollar.

hair Leen waved. Soon the shriek had a companion. And then snother. In a few immutes there would be a crowd of shrieks. The crowd of speciators below was growing,

What should be done? The police-Proctor and Turner to restrain Robert | men were all hiding. The fire department was away on a vacation. The m litis had disbunded for the summer. The Santa Fe deputies could not be reached.

ed to it. It was a sign. The sign real: "Yank & Pull, The Only Painless Den-One by one the crowd saw it. The Men's line Congress Julistics for tists."

ly. And then it melted away. That was THE TEST MISAPPLIED.

But Another Trait of Human Nature Stands

Revenled. The m ghty Shelk Abdullah spake one day to the court sage, old Enekazi, as follows: You are always ready to give sensible advice, Eoskazl. Perhaps you could since which of my councilors are really fitted in size, width and quality, as there sincere."

"A very simple matter," replied the made in the United States, sage confidently, "I will tell you at once mighty shelk, how that is to be managed. Go and compose a long ballad this very 511 Kansas ave.

"Stop," interrupted the shelk, "You forget that I am no post."

"That's just it, mighty shelk! Go and write at once a long ballad and read it to your assembled councilors." But, Enckazi, bear in mind that I never wrote a line of poetry in my life."

"So much the better. When you have read the long ballad to your courtiers, you will judge of the effect yourself. Tomor row I will come again and learn the result of your observations. Next day the wise Enekazi entered the sheik's tent, saying: "Did you follow my advice, mighty sheik?" "Certainly." "And what happened after you had read prise. One exclaimed that this was the our advertising when we can, and long sought for ballad of the great post when we can't we don't beg for bright luminary in the firmament of poet | res notices. We have the nicest ry; a third craved permission to cut off steaks and s. rloin roasts fresh every a small plece of my robe in memory of the day. We pride ourse ves on keepeventful occasion and the immortal bard ing the best cooks and the most praised my ideas and my language up to

"And what about old Heri-adin?" eager questioned the sage.
Ah, he dropped to sleep while I was ly questioned the sage.

reading. ' Ha, hat What did you conclude fron that, mighty shelk?" said the old man tri-

What conclusion could I come to," replied the shelk with some surprise, "if not the same as all the rest-namely, that I possess very great talent for poetry?" Enekasi salaamed, lighted his chibouk and—held his peace. For he was, in sooth, a wise man.—Fliegende Blatter.

For ver Fr ty Years Mra. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for teething. It soothes, softens the gums, allays pain, cures colic.

remedy for diarrhoea. 25 cents a bottle. Nearly all women have good hair, though many are gray, and few are bald. Hall's Hair Restorer restore's the natural color, and thickens the growth of the

It is important to keep the liver and kidneys in good condition. Hood's Sar-saparilla is the remedy for invigorating

Administrators'

Shoe Sale

The Boston Shoe company, at 511 Eansas ave., have scooped in about $12,000 of all kinds of time footwear from the administrator of Harper, Hatch & Eme-

LOOK AND READ Ladies' fine hand turned French Eld $4 Shoes.....$1.65 Ladies' fine hand sewed Juliettes in black or russet tan $3.50 Shoes ... 1.75 Ladies' fine hand sewed $2.50 Prince Ladies' line hand sewed several Merri Osborn has received $2,000 from the Delaware and Hudson Railroad company in compensation for injuries in an accident at Cohoes, N. Y.

His assistance? The crowd stood spellbound. It gazed stupidly at itself. The less than cost, of leather to manufacture. Yes, there was a clue. A fat man had Men's fine Kangaron $5 Shoes.... 2.75

bert and Southern Ties $5 Shoes, 2.75 3. en's time low cut $2.50 and $3.00

Men's good $1.50 Veal Culf Shoes in Men's best quality Beyele Stores

Call and examine this immense this stock of fine footwear, as you will get

BOSTON SHOE CO.

All muli orders promptly attended to

IS THE LIFE OF TRADE

We invite competition, but we do not compete with the douse of Refuge; we have no band of deyour ballad?" inquired the old man, smil vote 1 ladies to beg money to replace our worn-out fittings or buy Oh, I was completely taken by sur a new cooking range. We pay for > CREMERIE, 734 Kan. Ave.

TOPEKA, - KANSAS.

Medical and Surgical Treatment.

Mervous and shronic diseases and diseases of women. VACUUM SPECIALTIES: Paralysis, and old ouronic diseases that medicine have taked to cure.

W. C. FRANCIS, Man'g'r.

BOA OLD AVERUO W.